

HOTEL The Five

Mr.Vaurs is pleased to invite you to a world elsewhere and to a friendly and surprising designer interior. Let the Five Hotel tempts your 5 senses, that's why This hotel's name is The FIVE Hotel :

- First of all, your sense of smell, captivated by one of the 5 fragrances that you may choose to use in your room.
- Then your sense of touch, attracted by the presence of noble and genuine materials, carpets, velvets, ceramic stoneware, and Chinese lacquer... The Five Hotel's design has a cosy feeling.
- Over to your sense of taste – impressed by a wonderful crusty breakfast of Viennese bread, and buns from the famous Monge bakery washed down with tea or coffee from the Mariage Frères brand with its unique flavours.
