HOTEL Le Hameau de Passy

Our charming hotel is situated at the heart of the lively Passy district, one of the very chic areas in Paris, the XVIth Parisian quarter. It is two steps away from OECD headquarters, several ambassies and different administrations.

You will no doubt be charmed by the very peculiar atmosphere of that place, but most of all by the shopping activity of Passy street.

Our staff is at your disposal and will answer all your questions concerning the shops and the area around. If you wish so, you can discover the history of this place going from La Muette to Passy.
